

Licensee requests authority to operate with reduced power. The recent severe weather paired with power outages have compromised the effectiveness of the station's transmitter. Licensee is working to secure replacement equipment, but will need to operate with reduced power until repairs can be made or the equipment can be replaced.