

Advancement of Educational Purpose. To spread the gospel word into the community and work closely with them. The Applicant will provide a noncommercial broadcast service for the advancement of its educational program. Applicant's educational objectives include the following:

- Re-broadcast religious programs produced by organizations with the Christian Church and delivered via satellite/internet
- Originate local Christian religious, educational and cultural programs on local Christian events of interest to the population within the broadcast area; and
- distribute religious, educational and cultural material available and furnished by the clergy and laity of the Christian Church, including materials produced by various organizations and apostolates faithful to the Christian Church.

In order to advance these and other educational purposes, Applicant plans to broadcast in a "Christian Talk" format.

Applicant intends, of course, to honor the commitments set forth in its Form 318 application, including those with respect to the local origination of programming. Such local origination programming may include broadcast of a local church service, or the broadcast of homilies by local clergy, interviews with pastors, or spiritual music introduced by a local on-air personality.

Applicant will work with local Christian churches and other community organizations to assist and complement existing efforts to administer to the spiritual, intellectual, and physical needs of the listening audience.
