

EEO NARRATIVE

The station employment unit (“SEU”), which consists of the following commonly owned and operated stations WXIN(TV), Indianapolis, IN, FAC ID 146, WTTV(TV), Bloomington, IN, FAC ID 56523, and WTTK(TV), Kokomo, IN, FAC ID 56526, continuously strives to achieve broad and inclusive outreach and has established EEO policies and procedures which focus on the wide dissemination of information about job opportunities at the SEU to the immediate community via a variety of recruitment sources. It is a fundamental principle and practice of the SEU to prohibit employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, national origin or gender and to ensure equal opportunity to qualified applicants.

Sources targeted for recruitment include, but are not limited to, educational institutions, minority, women’s and local community organizations, state and local area unemployment organizations, and other groups or organizations that assist in job placement. The SEU also participates in job fairs and has an active role in a scholarship program to assist students interested in a career in broadcasting.

In addition to its traditional recruiting efforts, the SEU has an established internship program which recruits candidates from local colleges in order to prepare them for entry-level jobs within the broadcast industry.

The SEU understands the importance of its recruiting obligations, and as such, reviews its policies and procedures on an annual basis in order to make adjustments to its recruiting sources and its community activities.
