

WANA-LD Silence Authority

Station WANA-LD ceased operations September 3, 2020 because of possible interference to land mobile operations. The Station is investigating these matters and possible engineering solutions to any problems discovered. In the interim, it has filed an application, FCC File No. 0000121426, for authority to remain silent to permit the interference issue to be resolved.