RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	TYPE OF RECRUITMENT INITIATIVE (MENU SELECTION)	BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY
1	Internships	KAWC studios are used by Arizona Western College broadcasting students to learn basic broadcasting skills.
2	Scholarships	Arizona Western College foundation offers scholarships for broadcasting students.
3	Studio tours and jobs discussion for students	Each semester KAWC hosts the students of Arizona Western College’s BDC-100 “Intro to Broadcasting” class. The meeting includes a tour of facilities and an in depth discussion of employment opportunities in radio. Average attendance is 25 students. KAWC has also assisted area high school teachers by offering studio tours and talking to students about job opportunities in broadcasting.

4	Outreach to non-commercial broadcasters	KAWC staff has provided assistance to other non-commercial broadcasters in our region including support for a minority operated full power FM station in Somerton, AZ and a Native American owned and operated low power FM station on the Quachan (Fort Yuma) Reservation.
5	Part Time Employees	KAWC typically hires two or more part time announcers/production assistants. These positions are excellent training for future full time employees. Though our “Border Radio” project we have hired a cohort of five announcers and production assistants. This group is made up primarily of Native American and Hispanic students and community members who work in on air and off air roles.
