

COMPREHENSIVE EXHIBIT

I. Introduction

The instant application is one of a number of concurrently filed Form 316 applications (the “Applications”) that seek the Commission’s consent to the pro forma transfer of control (the “Transfer of Control”) of 17 Commission licensees (the “Licensees”) under the control of ViacomCBS Inc. (“ViacomCBS”). The seven individuals who had control of ViacomCBS prior to the transfer remain in control following the transfer, with the change being solely to the entities through which these individuals exercise control. Specifically, the pro forma Transfer of Control of the Licensees results from the dissolution in April 2021 of the Sumner M. Redstone National Amusements Life Income Trust (the “SMR Life Income Trust”). Collectively, the Licensees hold Commission licenses for 29 television broadcast stations. A list of the Licensees, and the specific licenses held by each of them, is attached to this Comprehensive Exhibit as Attachment A.

ViacomCBS is controlled by National Amusements, Inc. (“NAI”), its single majority shareholder, which holds approximately 77.4% of the voting stock of ViacomCBS.<sup>1</sup> Until recently, the voting stock and equity of NAI were held by three trusts: (i) the Sumner M. Redstone National Amusements Part B General Trust (the “SMR Part B Trust”); (ii) the SMR Life Income Trust; and (iii) the Shari Ellin Redstone Trust. The SMR Part B Trust held 40% of the voting stock and equity of NAI, the SMR Life Income Trust held 40% of the voting stock and equity of NAI, and the Shari Ellin Redstone Trust held 20% of the voting stock and equity of NAI. The SMR Part B Trust and the SMR Life Income Trust shared seven common voting trustees: Shari E. Redstone, Tyler J. Korff, David R. Andelman, Norman I. Jacobs, Thaddeus P. Jankowski, Jill S. Krutick and Leonard L. Lewin (collectively, the “Trustees”).<sup>2</sup> The SMR Part B Trust and the SMR Life Income Trust were the controlling entities of NAI and therefore the indirect controlling entities of the Licensees.

In April 2021, in connection with the settlement of a claim against the estate of Sumner M. Redstone, Phyllis Redstone, the sole beneficiary of the SMR Life Income Trust, waived all rights under that Trust. The trust documentation provided that any such waiver would trigger the automatic dissolution of the SMR Life Income Trust and the effectiveness of such dissolution would be retroactive to the date of Sumner M. Redstone’s death, August 11, 2020. As a result of the settlement, the 40% of the NAI voting stock controlled by the Trustees through the SMR Life Income Trust was assumed by the SMR Part B Trust, which remains controlled by the Trustees. Accordingly, the SMR Part B Trust now holds 80% of the voting stock of NAI.

The seven voting trustees of the SMR Part B Trust have not changed and are the same individuals who were the voting trustees of the SMR Life Income Trust. The way in which decisions are made by the Trustees also has not changed. Pursuant to the trust documentation of each of the SMR Part B Trust and the SMR Life Income Trust, the Trustees were required to cause each of the SMR Part B Trust and the SMR Life Income Trust to vote the NAI shares held by such Trust in the same manner as the shares held by the other Trust. Each of the Trustees was granted an equal vote, and decisions with respect to the NAI stock held by each Trust were to be made by majority vote of the Trustees, except for decisions pertaining to any sale, merger, reorganization or similar business transaction, including the disposition of NAI's interests in ViacomCBS. Such decisions required approval by a majority of disinterested Trustees (i.e., Mr. Andelman, Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Jankowski, Ms. Krutick and Mr. Lewin) and by a majority of all Trustees. This decision-making process remains in place with respect to the SMR Part B Trust. As such, the elimination of the SMR Life Income Trust and consolidation of 80% of the voting stock of NAI in the SMR Part B Trust has not changed either the Trustees or the way in which they make decisions with respect to the 80% of the voting stock of NAI.

As noted, the foregoing transfer has already occurred in connection with the settlement of the claim made by Phyllis Redstone against the estate of Sumner M. Redstone. ViacomCBS was just recently informed of the transfer and respectfully requests nunc pro tunc approval of this transfer.

II. Transaction Agreements

As described above, as a result of the settlement of the claim against Mr. Redstone's estate, the 40% of the NAI voting stock held by the SMR Life Income Trust was assumed by the SMR Part B Trust. Accordingly, the SMR Part B Trust now holds 80% of the voting stock of NAI. There are no contracts or agreements specifically relating to the Transfer of Control. A summary of the relevant terms of the governing document for the SMR Part B Trust follows:
