III. Non-Vacancy Specific Recruitment Efforts During Reporting

Participate in at least four job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.	2/6/2020- John Carroll University Career Fair. Attended by Moreen Bailey Frater, Director Community Relations, Peter Gunn, Director of Sales, Jared Roach, Account Executive, Steve Weinstein, VP and General Manager, Erica Grant, HR Director. Those scheduled later were cancelled due to Covid-19
Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.	WEWS recruits students from local colleges and from around the country for our internship program. The internship gives students the opportunity to get exposure to the television industry and to learn about the area of the business in which they are most interested in pursuing a career. WEWS offers internships with our investigative unit, Good Morning Cleveland and the news assignment desk. During this reporting period WEWS hired three interns. Two for the Summer 2019 semester; one from Ashland University working with Good Morning Cleveland and one from Kent State University working with our Investigative Unit. We also hired one intern for the Spring 2020 Semester from Kent State University working with our Assignment Desk.
Participation in scholarship programs designed to assist students interested in pursuing a career in broadcasting.	WEWS established the JoAnne Robinson Memorial Scholarship with assistance from the Scripps Howard Foundation in April 1999 to assist students who are interested in a broadcasting career. The scholarship is open to African-American students nationwide. The 2020 JoAnne Robinson Memorial Scholarship was awarded to a student currently attending Hampton University.
Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.	WEWS and its employees participate in The E.W. Scripps Company's Career Management Program that includes training to help employees develop their career skills. In addition, all WEWS employees enjoy the opportunity to pursue career advancement through online training in station-related skills such as management, leadership, career growth planning, job interviewing, and a variety of specific skills. This eLearning system is also used for EEO training and other mandatory compliance trainings.
Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.	July 22 through August 2, 2019- WEWS hosted two visiting professors. The professors were from Columbus State University in Georgia and Washington State University. One spent the duration with our digital team and the other with spent time with our sales team.
	July 12, 2019 WEWS News Management Team, through the Cleveland Council on World Affairs, hosted a group of professional journalists from Ethiopia. They represented a variety of Media companies in Ethiopia.

	November 11, 2019 WEWS News and Digital Teams, through the Cleveland Council on World Affairs, hosted a group of female sports journalists who wanted to learn more about the role of women sports reporters in the United States.
	November 11, 2019 WEWS News and Digital Teams, through the Cleveland Council on World Affairs, hosted a group of female sports journalists who wanted to learn more about the role of women sports reporters in the United States.
	Through our Student Shadow Program, WEWS hosts high school and college students throughout the academic year who are interested in careers in broadcasting. Students spend a day or half a day with professionals in their career area of interest.
Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.	All managers attended a series of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Trainings in October of 2019. The series focused on managing racial bias within the news industry.
Participation in other activities designed by the station employment unit reasonably calculated to further the goal of disseminating information as to employment opportunities in broadcasting to job candidates who might otherwise be unaware of such opportunities.	WEWS airs a PSA schedule with an outreach announcement to organizations interested in receiving information regarding job. This announcement ran 18 times in various day parts during this reporting period.
