

The station off the air and will require a full coolant fan replacement before returning to air. Although the licensee anticipates that the fan replacement will take place in the next few weeks, out of an abundance of caution, the licensee hereby requests an STA to remain silent.