

Online Public File Exhibit

In the course of preparing the instant renewal application, licensee reviewed its online public file and noticed some discrepancies. An annual EEO public file report was uploaded late and some issues/programs lists were uploaded late as the station adapted to using the online public file interface. Additionally, two federal candidate political orders were uploaded late to the public file. Going forward, licensee will ensure all documents are timely uploaded to the public file.