

Station KVTE-LD is silent due to problems with the video server. It was believed that the video server needed to be rebooted. Several attempts were made and the station was unable to get the video server back online. The transmitter has been turned until such time as the video server can be repaired.