

Reason for Extension

The applicant expected to have construction completed by the expiration date. However, a hurricane is currently disrupting conditions in Texas – which may delay completion of construction beyond the expiration date. Hopefully, there will be no problems, and construction will be completed on time. This is being filed out of an abundance of caution.