

WOI-DT and KCWI-TV

EEO Program Report Narrative Statement

Training programs are an important aspect of this Employment Unit's (EU) strategy to provide station personnel, including management, with opportunities for advancement. The stations reach out to their community through speaking engagements at educational institutions about opportunities in the broadcast industry and by attending job fairs. Additionally, the EU disseminates information about job opportunities at the station to a variety of sources.