WUMN-LD, Univision Minneapolis Narrative Statement

Media Vista Minneapolis, LLC is the licensee of station WUMN-LD, Minneapolis, MN (the “Station”). The Station undertakes to achieve broad and inclusive outreach in connection with station employment opportunities and to disseminate information about employment opportunities throughout the Minneapolis community.

The Station notifies recruitment sources to disseminate notices of full-time job vacancies to qualified applicants, using a combination of posting job vacancy notices on the Station’s website, posting notices on one or more Internet job banks targeted to individuals seeking employment, and/or advertising job vacancies through organizations involved with the creation, advancement, promotion and development of economic opportunities within the Hispanic market and business community in Minneapolis.

The Station also engages in supplemental outreach activities that help provide information about employment opportunities at the employment unit and opportunities in broadcasting in general. These activities include participation in internship programs and job fairs.
