

The purpose of this exhibit is to demonstrate Indiana Community Radio Project's (INCRP) educational objective and that the proposed radio station will be used for the advancement of an educational program under 73.503(a) of the Rules. The rules describe that noncommercial licenses are not limited to classroom instruction, but may "transmit educational, cultural, and entertainment program to the general public," (Section 73.503(b)) in the advancement of a radio program.

Educational Objective & Program

INCRP promotes diverse educational programs through providing content in relation to past, present, and future advancements in the arts and entertainment as well as a focused programming selection to include STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) education for all ages. The overall intent is to provide programming that does not currently exist in the community and is diverse in nature for all to enjoy by providing educational value.

INCRP also intends to work with interested community educational institutions by developing and broadcasting educational curriculum aimed at high school level students interested in content production, communication engineering, on-air broadcasting, as well as providing a means for school activity coverage facilitated by the use of the proposed broadcast station.

INCRP, Inc intends to utilize the proposed facility to extend its educational and civic-oriented mission.

Some examples of programming would include:

1. Broadcast news, music, finance and local events already produced
2. Broadcast public affairs programming in relation to arts and entertainment
3. Broadcast shows on youth and adult interests surrounding STEM
4. Broadcast historical music and entertainment content for the education and preservation of history and culture
5. Local musicians from the surrounding areas and other diverse entertainment options, and local events will be publicized.
6. Opportunities for language acquisition will be promoted and there may be some bilingual or foreign language programming.
7. Provide educational programming promoting financial literacy for all ages

Initiating a radio program will help expand the INCRP, Inc. educational mission and advance an educational program under 73.503(a) of the Rules.

Respectfully,
Indiana Community Radio Project
INCRP, Inc.
