

Supplemental Statement Regarding Consummation

Licensee and Transferee (the “Parties”) hereby submit the instant consummation notice for transfer of control application LMS File Number 0000176650 (“Application”). As explained in Exhibit 12 to the Application, the transaction described therein became effective on June 9, 2020. Because the transfer of control became effective as of that date, and in order to permit this update to the FCC’s records, the Parties have listed the Application consent date as the consummation date in the form, and submits this supplemental response to clarify that the transaction became effective on June 9, 2020.
