

Children's Television Programming Disclosure

The station has filed Children's Television Programming Reports since June 6, 2014, when Western New Life became licensee of Station WQHA. However, some of the Children's Programming Reports were filed untimely.