

Certification

The License Renewal certification for WHEH-LD has become corrupted in FCC File Number: 0000118899 and is now inaccessible. In preparing the Amendment to the License Renewal, counsel for the Licensee reached out to Commission staff to discuss the inability to update the certifications for WHEH-LD, but it appears that Commission staff has not yet been able to resolve the issue. Out of an abundance of caution, please find below a screenshot of the original certifications.
