

This amendment is to confirm the applicant's claim to points for diversity of ownership. The applicant has no attributable interest in any station the principal community contour of which would overlap the principal community contour of the station proposed in this application.

This amendment is not a comparative upgrade. It confirms facts that were already evident in the application which support the claim for diversity points, that is, that the applicant has no attributable interests at all.