

Amendment Explanation

This amendment is filed to report that the station is off the air due to severe winter weather that damaged the transmission line. A request for silent temporary authority has been filed. The response to the certification that the station is on the air has been changed from “yes” to “no.” No other changes have been made.