

The applicant complies with all pertinent rule sections for this application, including those mentioned in the form technical certifications.

For the underlying contour determinations of this application, all service contours are F50,50 contours as determined using Figure 1 of Section 73.333 of the FCC Rules. All interference contours are F50,10 contours as determined using Figure 1a of Section 73.333 of the FCC Rules. USGS 3 arc-second terrain data and a 1-degree azimuth increment have been used.

There are no known channel 6 full service stations that require study pursuant to Section 73.525.