

REVOCATION OF THE EVANS LIVING TRUST, DATED MAY 10, 2010

On May 10, 2012, I established the EVANS LIVING TRUST, dated May 10, 2012 (the Trust) with my husband, Jerry Evans. Following a Decree of Divorce filed February 1, 2022, I am no longer married to Jerry Evans and now revoke the joint Trust. I am the current Trustee (the Trustee). In Section 3 of Article Four of the Trust I reserved the right to revoke the Trust at any time, in whole or in part, for any purpose as to my respective Contributive Share of the Trust Estate. On ~~March~~ ^{April} ~~14~~, 2022, I exercise this right to revoke the Trust by this Revocation of the EVANS LIVING TRUST, dated May 10, 2012 (Revocation of Trust).

I absolutely revoke the Trust in its entirety.

I acknowledge that no life insurance policies, retirement plans, annuities, transfer-on-death accounts, or other assets passing by a beneficiary designation are payable to the Trust.

I acknowledge that, to the best of my knowledge, any property transferred to the Trustees of the Trust has been transferred out of the Trust and that any instruments necessary or appropriate to release all of the Trustees' interest in the Trust, as Trustees, have been signed and delivered by me.

I direct that if, despite my best knowledge, any property remains titled to the Trust or becomes payable to the Trust at or after my death, the property will be distributed to the then-serving Trustees, who will immediately distribute the property to my probate estate.
