

SPECIAL OPERATING CONDITION

The WUTK construction permit includes a special operating condition prohibiting the automatic program tests if the antenna which is installed differs from the EPA Type 2 (opposed V dipole) three section, 0.5 wavelength spaced antenna specified in the construction permit application. Since the antenna which was installed matches what was proposed in the construction permit application, this restriction does not apply.

