

Certification Regarding FCC Violations During the Preceding License Term

On September 21, 2022, the Commission released a Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture finding that certain broadcast licensees (including the applicant) apparently failed to comply with the Commission's limits on commercial matter in children's programming. See Cunningham Broadcasting Corporation, et al., Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture, FCC 22-70 (rel. Sept. 21, 2022).
