

January 2023

KOBI/KOTI/K32DY 2022 Children's Program Report Explanation

The Voyager was preempted and not rescheduled on the following dates due to the Olympics: February 5, 12 and 19, 2022. This program was also preempted and not rescheduled on May 21, 2022 due to multiple sporting events airing.

Vets Saving Pets was preempted and not rescheduled on the following dates due to the Olympics: February 5, 12 and 19, 2022. This program was also preempted and not rescheduled on May 21, 2022 due to multiple sporting events airing.

On Saturday, June 18, Wild Child was rescheduled to air on Sunday, June 19 at 4pm. Golf went long and the program was JIP'd at 4:05pm. It is counted as a normal rescheduled preemption on the report.

On, Saturday, June 11, The Voyager was rescheduled to air at 4:00pm. Horse Racing went long and the program slid to 4:11pm and aired in its entirety. It is marked on the report as a rescheduled preemption with notification of the scheduled change – although it aired 11 minutes later than scheduled.

On, Saturday, June 11, Vets Saving Pets was rescheduled to air at 4:30pm. Horse Racing went long and the program slid to 4:41pm and aired in its entirety. It is marked on the report as a rescheduled preemption with notification of the scheduled change – although it aired 11 minutes later than scheduled.

On August 6, 2022, The Voyager was rescheduled to air at 4:00pm and aired as scheduled. On Monday, August 8 we were informed by NBC that the E/I bug had inadvertently been left off of the program. The network re-fed the program and it aired a second time on Sunday August 14, 2022. However due to the nature of the makegood, no on-air advance notice was possible. We have marked this as a preempt that was made good without notification.

On August 6, 2022, Vets Saving Pets was rescheduled to air at 4:30pm and aired as scheduled. On Monday, August 8 we were informed by NBC that the E/I bug had inadvertently been left off of the program. The network re-fed the program and it aired a second time on Sunday August 14, 2022. However due to the nature of the makegood, no on-air advance notice was possible. We have marked this as a preempt that was made good without notification.