

The purpose of this amendment is to correct the ground elevation above mean sea level to 579 meters and the elevation of the center of antenna radiation to 590.2 meters above mean sea level. Revised engineering exhibits are submitted, which includes a sketch of the proposed installation demonstrating that the antenna and support pipe will extend less than 20 feet above the roof of an existing structure.