

Resumption of operations will begin immediately. The possibility of theft is still high so we have found a new antenna site and submitted an application to move. Operations will continue at original site until the modification is granted.