Neither party shall take or fail to take any action within such party's reasonable control, the effect of which would be to prevent or unreasonably delay the satisfaction of any condition to its or the other party's obligations contained in Section 6 or the consummation of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

9. CONTROL OF STATION.

9.1 Prior to Consummation. This Agreement shall not be consummated until after the FCC has given its written consent thereto, and between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Buyer shall not directly or indirectly control, supervise or direct, or attempt to control, supervise or direct, the operation of the Station. Such control shall remain the sole responsibility of the Seller.

9.2 Following Consummation. Upon consummation of the transactions contemplated in this Agreement on the Closing Date, Seller shall have no right to reassignment of the Station Authorization in the future, and may not reserve the right to use the facilities of the Station in violation of § 73.1150 of the rules and regulations of the FCC. Buyer shall, upon Consummation, notify the FCC as to any new primary station that the Station will rebroadcast, in compliance with applicable FCC rules.

10. TERMINATION.

10.1 Absence of FCC Consent. If the FCC has not granted the Assignment Application within nine (9) months after filing of the Assignment Application ("Upset Date"), either party shall have the right to rescind its obligation with respect to the purchase and sale of the Station and terminate this Agreement, and Seller shall return the Deposit to Buyer. It is further provided, however, that no party may terminate this Agreement if such party is in default hereunder, or if a delay in any decision or determination by the FCC respecting the Assignment Application has been caused or materially contributed to (i) by any failure of such party to furnish, file or make available to the FCC information within its control; (ii) by the wilful furnishing by such party of incorrect, inaccurate or incomplete information to the FCC; and (iii) by any other action taken by such party for the purpose of delaying the Commission's decision or determination respecting the Assignment Application. Upon such termination for failure of the Commission to act, the parties shall be released and discharged from any further obligation hereunder.

10.2 Designation for Hearing. The time for FCC approval provided in Section 8.1 notwithstanding, either party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other, if for any reason, the Assignment Application is designated for hearing by the FCC, provided, however, that written notice of termination must be given within twenty (20) days after release of the Hearing Designation Order and that the party giving such notice is not in default and has otherwise complied with its obligations under this Agreement. Upon termination pursuant to this Section, the Seller shall return the Deposit to the Buyer and thereafter the parties shall be released and discharged from any further obligation hereunder.

10.3 Termination Upon Default. A party may terminate this Agreement if the other party is, pursuant to Section 11 hereunder, in default and such default is not cured.

11. DEFAULT AND REMEDIES.

11.1 Material Breaches. A party shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement only if such party has materially breached or failed to perform its obligations hereunder, and nonmaterial breaches or failures shall not be grounds for declaring a party to be in default, postponing the Closing or terminating this Agreement.

11.2 Opportunity to Cure. If either party believes the other to be in default hereunder, such party shall provide the other with written notice specifying in reasonable detail the nature of the default. If the default has not been cured within ten (10) days after delivery of that notice (or such additional reasonable time as the circumstances may warrant provided the party in default undertakes diligent, good faith efforts to cure the default within such ten (10) day period and continues such efforts thereafter), then the party giving such notice may terminate this Agreement and exercise the remedies available to such party pursuant to this Section.

11.3 Liquidated Damages. If Seller terminates this Agreement pursuant due to the uncured default of Buyer, then the Deposit shall constitute liquidated damages and be the sole remedy of Seller under this Agreement. Buyer acknowledges and agrees that Seller's recovery of such amount shall constitute payment of liquidated damages and not a penalty and that Seller's liquidated damages amount is reasonable in light of the substantial but indeterminate harm anticipated to be caused by Buyer's material breach or default under this Agreement.

11.4 Specific Performance. If this Agreement is terminated due to the default of Seller, Buyer may, as an alternative to return of the Deposit, bring an action for specific performance as the exclusive remedy of Buyer against Seller. Seller hereby acknowledges that the Purchased Assets are of a special, unique, and extraordinary character, and that monetary damages alone would not be sufficient to compensate Buyer under such circumstances.

12. FACILITY MODIFICATION. Subsequent to execution of this Agreement, but prior to receipt of Commission Consent and the Closing contemplated herein, Buyer and Seller agree to cooperatively perform engineering studies and other analyses and Seller agrees to file a Form 349 Application for Modification of License for the Station with the FCC to a commercial channel located at a new tower site based on parameters determined by such studies, and any cost incurred by Seller relating to the Modification Application, including the FCC Filing fee for such Modification Application and costs of prosecution of the Modification Application, shall be reimbursed by Buyer prior to or at Closing. It is explicitly understood by Buyer and Seller that, because the Station is currently licensed to a channel in the band reserved for noncommercial educational operation and Buyer, as a commercial entity, is not qualified to hold such a license, grant of the Modification Application shall be a condition of Closing, and if not granted within nine (9) months of filing, this Agreement shall be terminated pursuant to Section 10.1 above.

13. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

13.1 Attorneys' Fees. If either party initiates any litigation or arbitration against the other involving this Agreement, the prevailing party in such action shall be entitled to receive reimbursement from the other party for all reasonable attorneys' fees (including, but not limited to, licensed attorneys and/or paralegals) and other costs and expenses incurred by the prevailing party in respect of that litigation or arbitration, including any appeal, and such reimbursement may be included in the judgment or final order issued in that proceeding.

13.2 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided herein, all expenses involved in the preparation and consummation of this Agreement shall be borne by the party incurring same whether or not the transaction contemplated herein is consummated. All FCC filing fees for the Assignment Application shall be paid by the Buyer. Any recording costs for other instruments of transfer, and all stamp, sales, use, and transfer taxes shall be paid by Buyer.
