Educational Purpose:

Our radio station aims to educate the audience on positive values such as love, tolerance, compassion, and respect. Through programs, teachings, and testimonies, we seek to inspire people to live according to these values in their daily lives focusing on the following areas:

- Spiritual growth: We want to motivate people to grow in their faith and spirituality. We offer resources, teachings, and reflections that help listeners deepen their relationship with God and strengthen their spiritual life.
- Promotion of family values: We recognize the importance of the family as the foundation of society. Therefore, we focus on reinforcing positive family values by providing practical advice on marriage, parenting, communication, and building healthy relationships within the family.
- Dissemination of positive community news and activities: We aim to be a platform that highlights positive news and activities happening in our community. We share success stories, community service projects, events that promote unity and cooperation, and other initiatives that have a positive impact on our society.
- Sharing Positive Teachings and Uplifting Music: The radio station will offer a variety of programs that share positive teachings from the Bible, Christian authors, and speakers. These teachings may cover topics such as personal growth, character development, and practical wisdom for daily living. Additionally, the station plays uplifting music that encourages and uplifts the spirit, providing a source of inspiration and encouragement throughout the day.

In summary, the educational purpose of our Christian radio station is to provide a message of hope, love, and compassion, restore family values, and promote a more positive society. Through programs, teachings, music, and news, we seek to positively impact the lives of our listeners and contribute to the transformation of our society.
