EDUCATIONAL STATEMENT

New(LP)
Apex, North Carolina
Channel 293LP100 (106.5 MHz)

Mujer de Guerra (Women of War) Foundation, Inc. is a North Carolina non-profit corporation that is involved in work to provide education, food and clothing assistance to needy children and their families within the United States as well as in Haiti and the Dominican Republic.

The LPFM station will be used to advance our educational objectives through on-air teaching of morality, culture, social skills and spirituality.

In the moral area:
We will educate to the public, principles based on the word of God (The Bible). The teaching of these principles should not be versed in an imposing manner, nor should they directly offend or threaten the beliefs of other religions or the free thought of the eyes.

In the cultural Area:
In an increasingly globalized world, we will be a channel that will facilitate the free expression of the thoughts of the community's inhabitants. It will also report on the shocking news that reflects the progress of art and culture in our people, providing assistance in information and making all radio resources available to the community for said promotion.

In the social area:
Our LPFM will be an entertainment medium that will inter current with the community through Christian musical, open online calls for effective communication with our people, to make nexus integral with the community, so that everyone can give their opinion on any social issue and to also promote respect and peace in the integrity of the individual.

In the spiritual area:
The LPFM radio's programs will encourage the practice of prayer, reading the Bible, fasting and Christian music, with the aim of edifying the family in a comprehensive way.
