To Whom It May Concern:

The Educational Radio Foundation of WV is a Non-Profit West Virginia Foundation, focusing on distributing information to the Buckhannon, West Virginia community via broadcast radio and streaming that educates, enlightens and entertains. By partnering with area schools, colleges, the medical community, and local businesses, the organization can provide a variety of broadcast programs focused on the challenges of the Upshur County, WV community.

The operation of a new low-powered FM broadcast service in the Buckhannon, West Virginia area will allow for the advancement of public service, news, and other vital information to an area in which is underserved by regionalized, or state-wide commercial broadcasters.

Sincerely,

Daniel Stimeling
