

Empower the Latino community in Palm Beach with valuable information, resources, and community-focused programming.

Deliver daily news and updates.

Programs: Regular news segments covering local, national, and international events relevant to the Latino community.

Provide information on local services and resources.

Programs: Educational sessions on available community resources, government programs, and support services.

Cultural Celebration and Preservation

Celebrate and preserve the rich cultural heritage of the Latino community in Palm Beach.

Promote cultural events and traditions.

Programs: Coverage of cultural festivals, interviews with community leaders, and discussions on traditional customs.

Showcase local artists and musicians.

Programs: Featured interviews with local Latino artists, musicians, and performers, promoting cultural expression.

Educational Programming for All Ages

Provide educational content catering to different age groups within the Latino community.

Educational programs for children.

Programs: Children's stories, language lessons, and age-appropriate educational content.

Teen-focused programs promoting academic success.

Programs: Career guidance, educational workshops, and discussions on academic achievement.

Adult education and skill-building.

Programs: Workshops on language acquisition, vocational training opportunities, and discussions on adult education.

Health and Wellness Awareness

Goal: To promote health and wellness within the Latino community by providing information on physical and mental well-being.

Broadcast health-related information.

Programs: Discussions on nutrition, fitness, and interviews with healthcare professionals.

:Address mental health topics.

Programs: Programs on stress management, coping strategies, and raising awareness about mental health resources.

Civic Engagement and Social Responsibility

Goal: To encourage active civic participation and social responsibility within the Latino community.

Promote voter education and civic engagement.

Programs: Voter registration drives, discussions on civic responsibilities, and interviews with political figures.

Encourage community service and volunteerism.

Programs: Features on local community service initiatives, interviews with volunteers, and discussions on the importance of giving back.

These educational objectives are designed to guide the programming of Latino Public Radio of Palm Beach Corp, fostering community empowerment, celebrating culture, providing education across age groups, promoting health and wellness, and encouraging civic engagement and social responsibility.