

KCIK – Compliance with Special Conditions

KCIK as part of the construction permit is reducing the power with no other changes. The constructed facility is in compliance with all special operating conditions, terms, and obligations described in the construction permit.