NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: April 17, 2013Released: April 18, 2013

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (“NAL”)¹ we find that WAGT Television, Inc. (the “Licensee”), licensee of television station WAGT-DT (the “Station”), apparently willfully and/or repeatedly violated Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules, by failing to publicize the existence and location of the Station’s Children’s Television Programming Reports (Form 398).² Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

II. BACKGROUND

2. Section 73.3526 of the Rules requires each commercial broadcast licensee to maintain a public inspection file containing specific types of information related to station operations.³ As set forth in subsection 73.3526(e)(11)(iii), each commercial television licensee is required to prepare and place in its public inspection file a Children’s Television Programming Report (FCC Form 398) for each calendar quarter reflecting, inter alia, the efforts that it made during that quarter to serve the educational and informational needs of children. That subsection also requires licensees to file the reports with the Commission and to publicize the existence and location of the reports.

3. In its 2004 license renewal application, the Licensee admitted that it failed to publicize the existence and location of its Children’s Television Programming Reports during the previous license term⁴ and was found apparently liable for a $10,000 forfeiture.⁵ In that application, the Licensee promised that in the future it would broadcast several announcements per quarter to fulfill this requirement.⁶

4. On November 29, 2012, the Licensee filed its license renewal application (FCC Form 303-S) for the Station (the "Application").⁷ In Exhibit 27 to the Application, the Licensee acknowledged that it failed to publicize adequately the existence and location of its Children's Television Programming Reports on-air from September 2011 through November 2012. The Licensee reported that it has taken steps to ensure that the existence and location of the reports will be publicized on-air in the future.⁸

III. DISCUSSION

5. The Licensee's failure to publicize adequately the Station's Children's Television Programming Reports constitutes an apparent willful and/or repeated violation of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii). Although the Licensee essentially states that the violations resulted from inadvertence, the Commission has repeatedly rejected human error and inadvertence as a basis for excusing a licensee's rule violation.⁹ Furthermore, corrective actions may have been taken to prevent subsequent violations of the children's television rules and policies, but that too, does not relieve the Licensee of liability for the violations which have occurred.¹⁰

6. This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have willfully and/or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.¹¹ Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as "the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate" the law.¹² The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,¹³ and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.¹⁴ Section 312(f)(2) of the Act provides that "[t]he term 'repeated,' when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day."¹⁵

7. The Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80(b)(4) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $10,000 for public file violations.¹⁶ In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act, including “the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”¹⁷

8. In this case, the Licensee failed to publicize the Station’s Children’s Television Programming Reports for 14 months. Based on the record before us, we believe that a forfeiture in the amount of $10,000 for the Station is appropriate for the Licensee’s apparent willful and/or repeated violations of Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii).¹⁸
