

Description of Transaction

On December 17, 2019, Terrier Media Buyer, Inc. (“Terrier Media”), pursuant to Commission consent, completed its acquisition of NBI Holdings LLC (“NBI”) and its subsidiaries that owned and operated broadcast television stations. Immediately after Terrier Media completed its acquisition of NBI and its subsidiaries, Terrier Media completed its acquisition of subsidiaries of Cox Enterprises, Inc. that owned and operated broadcast television and radio stations (collectively, the “Transactions”).<sup>1</sup> Following the consummation of the Transactions, NBI is now a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Terrier Media. NBI, through various intervening entities, is the indirect parent of 21 subsidiaries that hold broadcast licenses. Attachment A hereto depicts the current structure of Terrier Media, NBI, and its subsidiaries.

For business and tax reasons, Terrier Media intends to implement a reorganization of NBI’s downstream structure (the “Reorganization”). The Reorganization will include the following sequential steps and have the pro forma effects described for each step:

1. Each of Northwest Broadcasting, Inc. and Stainless Broadcasting Company will convert from corporations to limited liability companies and become Northwest Broadcasting, LLC and Stainless Broadcasting Company, LLC, respectively;<sup>2</sup>
2. Cox Media Group NE, Inc. will convert from a corporation to a limited liability company and become Cox Media Group NE, LLC;
3. Cox Media Group Northeast, LLC has formed WFXT (Boston), LLC, and will contribute the assets used in the operation of WFXT(TV), including the FCC licenses and authorizations to WFXT (Boston), LLC;<sup>3</sup>
4. Cox Media Group Northeast, LLC will then distribute WFXT (Boston), LLC to Cox Media Group NE, LLC, which will, in turn, distribute its interest in WFXT (Boston), LLC to Camelot Media Buyer, Inc., which will, in turn, contribute its interest in WFXT (Boston), LLC to Camelot Media Holdings, LLC, making WFXT(Boston), LLC a direct subsidiary of Camelot Media Holdings, LLC;

<sup>2</sup> Prior to the consummation of the Reorganization, the company will surrender the license of WNYS-TV, Syracuse, NY (facility identification number 58725), which is currently held by Syracuse Broadcasting, Inc. Syracuse Broadcasting, Inc. will not hold any FCC licenses after the license for WNYS-TV is surrendered.

<sup>3</sup> At or immediately following the consummation of the proposed Reorganization, Terrier Media anticipates changing the name of Cox Media Group Northeast, LLC to WHBQ (Memphis), LLC. Terrier Media will timely file the required notice of the change in the name of the licensee to the Commission.

5. Each of Camelot Media Parent, Inc. and Camelot Media Buyer, Inc. will convert from corporations to limited liability companies and become Camelot Media Parent, LLC and Camelot Media Buyer, LLC, respectively;
6. NBI has formed Northwest Media Parent, LLC as a direct subsidiary of NBI;
7. NBI will contribute Northwest Broadcasting, LLC; Stainless Broadcasting Company, LLC; Bryson Broadcast Holdings, LLC and Northwest Broadcasting, L.P. to Northwest Media Parent, LLC;
8. Cox Radio, Inc. will convert from a corporation to a limited liability company, becoming Cox Radio, LLC;
9. Cox Radio, Inc., has formed CMG NY/Texas Radio, LLC, and after its conversion to a limited liability company, Cox Radio, LLC will contribute the assets used in the operation of all of Cox Radio, LLC's broadcast radio stations in New York and Texas to CMG NY/Texas Radio, LLC;<sup>4</sup> and
10. Cox Radio, LLC will then distribute CMG NY/Texas Radio, LLC to Camelot Media Buyer, LLC, which, in turn, will contribute its interest in CMG NY/Texas Radio, LLC to Camelot Media Holdings, LLC, making CMG NY/Texas Radio, LLC a direct subsidiary of Camelot Media Holdings, LLC.

The proposed structure of Terrier Media and its subsidiaries following completion of the Reorganization, including all entities downstream to the licensee entity for each station, is depicted in Attachment B attached hereto.

This is one of 22 concurrently filed Form 316 applications seeking Commission consent to the pro forma assignments of license or transfers of control (as applicable) resulting from the above-described Reorganization. Other than ministerial documents to be signed at implementation, no written agreements govern this internal corporate reorganization. Upon consummation of the pro forma transactions described in the applications, the attributable interests in the FCC Licenses will continue to be held in the same proportions and by the same persons who were previously approved to hold those ownership interests. Accordingly, this transaction involves no substantial change in the beneficial ownership of the licensee entities and use of the FCC Form 316 is appropriate. The FCC recently approved the qualifications of Terrier Media and the existing entities specified in these applications in connection with its consent to the Transactions.

The following charts provide the attributable ownership information for the ownership structure of Terrier Media following consummation of the pro forma transaction.
