Gentlemen:

This is in reference to your request for Special Temporary Authority to operate the above-captioned low power television or television translator station.

In light of the facts set forth therein, your request for Special Temporary Authority IS HEREBY GRANTED to operate the station in accordance with the specifications in your current license. This authority is subject to the outcome of the normal LPTV renewal process and is conditioned on no interference being caused to any existing facilities.

This authority expires June 1, 2005.

Sincerely,

Hossein Hashemzadeh
Associate Chief

REQUEST FOR STA

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of Unalaska Community Broadcasting, Inc., ("UCB"), licensee of deleted LPTV Station DK08IW, Dutch Harbor, Alaska, we hereby request special temporary authority for operation of the station pending action on a Petition for Reconsideration of the deletion of the station from the Commission's database and a late-filed application for renewal of license, both filed today with the Commission. The name of the licensee was changed from Unalaska Community Television, Incorporated to Unalaska Community Broadcasting, Inc. in February 1996, but there was no change in ownership associated with that name change.

As stated in the Petition for Reconsideration, this nonprofit station serves Dutch Harbor and Unalaska, Alaska and the surrounding area of the Aleutian Islands. This location is where the Bering Sea meets the Pacific Ocean, at the terminus of the Alaska Marine Highway. The community of license has no other local video service, and the service area is hundreds of miles from the nearest station that originates video programming. This station is a key community resource in a remote area of Alaska, serving an ethnically and culturally diverse population. Dutch Harbor is known as America's richest fishing port, with many people performing very dangerous work. It is subject to storms that can last a week, with seas ranging up to 50 feet and frequent storms with hurricane force winds during the winter. All means of communications are involved at times in public safety broadcasting.

The licensee inadvertently failed to file for renewal during the last application period. The license was deleted from the Commission's database on October 15, 2004, and the licensee has petitioned for reconsideration and filed an application for renewal. The station has had managers only intermittently, but the board of directors has now hired a manager who is aware of Commission procedures and deadlines. The licensee wishes to gain reinstatement and renewal of the license and submits that continued operation of the station would clearly be in the public interest.

No fee is required for this filing, pursuant to Section 1.1114(e)(2), inasmuch as it pertains to an LPTV station that is operated by a nonprofit corporation on a noncommercial educational basis.

The licensee has authorized us to state on its behalf that neither it nor any party to this request is subject to denial of federal benefits under the Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1988.

Please address any questions concerning this request to this office.

Respectfully submitted,

SCHWARTZ, WOODS & MILLER

In re: LPTV/TV Translator Renewal Application of:
Unalaska Community Television, Inc.
K08IW Dutch Harbor, AK
Facility ID: 68756

Dear Applicant:

The Commission's records indicate that the required renewal application (FCC Form 303-S)<sup>1</sup> was not filed for the above-captioned LPTV/TV Translator station during the last renewal period, and that the license for the station is therefore subject to cancellation.

Before we cancel the license for the station(s), you are hereby directed to respond within 30 days of the date of this letter demonstrating if you and when you filed the requisite renewal application (FCC Form 303-S). Failure to do so will result in cancellation of the license for the station.

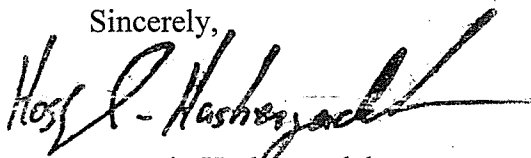

Further information concerning this matter may be directed to Mr. Hossein Hashemzadeh, Associate Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau at telephone number
