

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT

KVLV-DT, as identified in the instant application, is categorically excluded from environmental processing under 47 C.F.R. 73.1306, and will not have a significant impact as defined by 47 CFR 1.1307, since NONE of the following facility changes are proposed:

- (1) Facilities that are to be located in an officially designated wilderness area.
- (2) Facilities that are to be located in an officially designated wildlife preserve.
- (3) Facilities that: (i) May affect listed threatened or endangered species or designated critical habitats; or (ii) are likely to jeopardize the continued existence of any proposed endangered or threatened species or likely to result in the destruction or adverse modification of proposed critical habitats, as determined by the Secretary of the Interior pursuant to the Endangered Species Act of 1973.
- (4) Facilities that may affect districts, sites, buildings, structures or objects, significant in American history, architecture, archeology, engineering or culture, that are listed, or are eligible for listing, in the National Register of Historic Places. (See 16 USC 470w(5); 36 CFR Parts 60 and 800.)
- (5) Facilities that may affect Indian religious sites.
- (6) Facilities to be located in a flood plain. (See Executive Order 11988.)
- (7) Facilities whose construction will involve significant change in surface features (e.g., wetland fill, deforestation or water diversion). (In the case of wetlands on Federal property, see Executive Order 11990.)
- (8) Antenna towers and/or supporting structures that are to be equipped with high intensity white lights which are to be located in residential neighborhoods as defined by the applicable zoning law.

WITH RESPECT TO EXPOSURE TO RADIOFREQUENCY RADIATION:

1. A radiation hazard sign is posted at the base of the tower to warn any workers that may need to climb the tower.
2. When workers are required to work close to, or within the field of the transmitting antenna, the transmission power will be turned off.

The preceding statements were prepared by me, and are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge and belief.
