(viii) any claim, demand, charge, action, cause of action, or other proceeding asserted against Company Indemnitees or any Station and resulting from Manager's acts or omissions in Manager's capacity as an employer of its own employees and not any employee of the Company or any Affiliate, including withholding or failure to withhold taxes with respect to Manager's personnel and claims of harassment, discrimination or wrongful discharge, any claim for payment of compensation (including benefits) or salary asserted by any of Manager's personnel, or any liability for premiums, contributions, or taxes payable under any workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, disability benefit, old age benefit, or tax withholding or failure to withhold for which Company or any Affiliate may be adjudged liable as an employer with respect to any Manager personnel, in each case except to the extent that such Damages are caused by or attributable to any grossly negligent act, error or omission on the part of the Company or any Affiliate.

(b) Indemnification by Company. Company shall indemnify and hold harmless Manager and its directors, officers, members, employees and advisors from and against any and all Damages arising or resulting from or relating to:

(i) Company's breach of any representation, covenant, agreement or other obligation of Company contained in this Agreement;

(ii) any action, which constitutes gross negligence, recklessness or willful misconduct taken by Company or its employees and agents with respect to Manager, or any failure by Company or its employees and agents to take any action with respect to Manager, including damages relating to violations of the Communications Act, or any FCC Rule, slander, defamation or other claims relating to the sale of advertising time on any of the Stations, from and after the Effective Date;

(iii)

[REDACTED]

(iv) any claim, demand, charge, action, cause of action, or other proceeding asserted against Manager and resulting from acts or omissions of Company or any Affiliate in any such Company's or Affiliate's capacity as an employer of its own employees, including withholding or failure to withhold taxes with respect to their personnel and claims of harassment, discrimination or wrongful discharge, any claim for payment of compensation (including benefits) or salary asserted by any personnel of any member of Company or any Affiliate, or any liability for premiums, contributions, or taxes payable under any workers' compensation, unemployment compensation, disability benefit, old age benefit, or tax withholding or failure to withhold for which Manager may be adjudged liable as an employer with respect to any personnel of any member of Company or any Affiliate, in each case except to the extent that such Damages are caused by or attributable to any grossly negligent act, error or omission on the part of the Manager or the Operations Executives.

(c) Indemnification Procedure. Neither a Company Indemnitee nor Manager shall be entitled to indemnification pursuant to this Section 5 unless such claim for indemnification is asserted in a written notice delivered to the other Party, together with a statement as to the factual basis for the claim and the amount of the claim. Together with such notice or promptly following the delivery thereof, the Party making the claim (the “Claimant”) shall make available to the other Party (the “Indemnitor”) information relied upon by the Claimant to substantiate the claim. Such notice shall be given promptly following Claimant knowing or having reason to know about such claim; provided, the Indemnitor shall be relieved of a liability for Claimant’s failure to provide notice only if, and to the extent, adversely impacted by such failure. The Indemnitor under this Section 5(c) shall have the right to conduct and control through counsel of its own choosing and reasonably acceptable to the Claimant the defense of any third party claim, action or suit (and the Claimant shall cooperate fully with the Indemnitor, at the Indemnitor’s sole cost and expense), but the Claimant may, at its election, participate in the defense of any such claim, action or suit at its sole cost and expense; provided, that, if the Indemnitor shall fail to defend any such claim, action or suit, the Claimant may defend through counsel of its own choosing such claim, action or suit, and (so long as it gives the Indemnitor at least fifteen (15) days’ notice of the terms of the proposed settlement thereof and permits the Indemnitor to then undertake the defense thereof), settle such claim, action or suit, and, if Claimant is entitled to be indemnified by Indemnitor hereunder, Claimant may recover from the Indemnitor the amount of such settlement or of any judgment and the costs and expenses of such defense. The Indemnitor shall not compromise or settle any third party claim, action or suit without the prior written consent of the Claimant unless such compromise or settlement results in full and unconditional release of the Claimant and its Affiliates in respect of all claims relating thereto and does not impose on the Claimant or any of its Affiliates any obligation other than an obligation to pay amounts that the Indemnitor is paying in full contemporaneously with the entry into such compromise or settlement and customary obligations with respect to the confidentiality of the terms thereof.

7. Confidentiality.

(a) For purposes of this Agreement, “Confidential Information” of a Party means all information, regardless of the format in which it is provided, of such Party, its current and future parents, subsidiaries or Affiliates, and its suppliers and customers, which is provided or disclosed to, or is otherwise accessible or learned by the other Party in connection with the transactions contemplated by or performance of this Agreement, whether or not such information is marked “Confidential”. Confidential Information includes, without limitation: trade secrets, methodologies, business plans, supplier lists, customer lists, customer data, cost and price data, marketing information, software, computer and telecommunications systems, memoranda, papers, letters, e-mail, notes, plans, documentation, records, and all copies thereof, relating to the existing or planned business or technology that relate expressly to such Party’s business. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge and agree that any information generated in any fashion by Manager or its employees during the Term relating to the Stations or the Company or the Affiliates shall be the property of the Company, and Manager shall not be entitled to any of the Confidential Information protections set forth herein with respect to such information as such protections relate to the Company. With respect to the Manager, “Confidential Information” shall mean information generated that is specific to only Titan’s business and completely unrelated in any way to the business or affairs of the Company or the Affiliates. Confidential Information shall not include information made public by third parties unaffiliated with the Parties. Nothing in this Section 7 shall prohibit disclosure of Confidential Information to the extent required by law.

(b) Each Party shall treat all Confidential Information of the other Party as strictly confidential and shall use at least the same degree of care as it employs with respect to its own confidential information of like importance but, in no event less than a reasonable degree of care, to prevent access to or disclosure of the Confidential Information of the other Party in violation of this Agreement. Each Party agrees not to sell, license, transfer, publish, disclose, display or otherwise make available to others, or to use, any Confidential Information of the other Party, except in connection with the exercise of its rights or the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, unless such Party first obtains the prior written consent of the other Party. A Party may disclose Confidential Information of the other Party only to those of its representatives who reasonably need to know such Confidential Information and who are under a duty of confidentiality with respect to such Confidential Information. Each Party shall be liable for any violation of this Section 7 by any Person with, or with access to, Confidential Information by or through such Party, as if such Party had itself violated this Agreement.

(c) Promptly after the expiration or termination of this Agreement, each Party shall return or destroy all Confidential Information of the other Party that is in such first Party’s possession or under its control; provided, that, a Party may retain any of the foregoing to the extent required by applicable law, regulation or judicial or other governmental order and, in the case of Manager, may retain information relating to the operations of the Stations during the term of this Agreement to extent reasonably required in order for it to fulfill its financial and tax accounting and reporting requirements and to exercise its rights under this Agreement.

8. Intellectual Property. As between Company and the Affiliates, on one hand, and Manager, on the other hand, Company and the Affiliates own and retain all rights, title, and interest in and to all patents, copyrights, trademarks and other intellectual property owned by any of them or otherwise used or developed in connection with the operation of the businesses of Company and the Affiliates (the “Company Intellectual Property”). Subject to the conditions in this Section 8, Company and the Affiliates grant Manager a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable, and non-sublicenseable license, during the term of this Agreement and until completion of the transition services pursuant to Section 4(j), to use the Company Intellectual Property solely to the extent necessary or useful for Manager to exercise its rights and perform its obligations pursuant to this Agreement. Manager agrees that nothing in this Agreement shall confer in Manager or any third party any right of ownership in the Company Intellectual Property and that Manager does not have any rights in or to the Company Intellectual Property except for the limited license granted herein. All use by Manager of the Company Intellectual Property is subject to the prior written approval of Company and must comply with all applicable laws. Company reserves all rights to control the use of the Company Intellectual Property and Manager shall not use, change, or modify any Company Intellectual Property in any manner without prior written authorization from Company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Paragraph 9, the Manager expressly acknowledges and agrees that this Paragraph only relates to voluntary pre-payments from Free Cash Flow and not on account of any mandatory prepayments.

10. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties hereto with respect to the matters referred to herein, and no other agreement, verbal or otherwise, shall be binding as between the parties unless it shall be in writing and signed by the Party against whom enforcement is sought.

11. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application of any provision to any person or circumstance, shall be held to be inconsistent with any present or future law, ruling, rule, or regulation of any court or governmental or regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the subject matter hereof, such provision shall be deemed to be rescinded or modified in accordance with such law, ruling, rule, or regulation, and the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those as to which it shall be held inconsistent, shall not be affected thereby.

12. Notices. Any notice required or desired to be delivered under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be delivered by courier service, postage prepaid mail, telex, telegram, or other similar means and shall be effective upon actual receipt by the Party to which such notice shall be directed, addressed as follows (or to such other address as the Party entitled to notice shall hereafter designate in accordance with the terms hereof):

13. Governing Law, Venue; Waiver of Jury Trial. This Agreement, the rights and obligations of the parties and any claims or disputes relating thereto shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to its conflicts of law rules. Any action, suit or proceeding in respect of or arising out of this Agreement shall be prosecuted as to any Party hereto in New York, New York. Each Party hereto consents to the exercise of jurisdiction over its person by any court situated in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, State of New York and having jurisdiction over the subject matter of any such action, suit or proceeding, and consents to the service of process in connection therewith by notice given in accordance with Section 11 hereof. Each Party hereto waives any right such Party may have to a jury trial in connection with any such action, suit or proceeding.

14. Independent Contractor. The Parties specifically acknowledge that Manager is an independent contractor to Company and the Affiliates retaining control and responsibility for its operations and personnel. Manager shall in no way be construed to be an agent, attorney in fact or act in any other representative capacity for Company and/or any Affiliates. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Company and the Affiliates at all times will own its properties and assets and exercise ultimate control over the business and operations of Company and the Affiliates to the extent required by the Communications Laws. Other than as set forth in Section 2(d), no officer, director, employee, agent or Affiliate employed or retained by Manager to perform any Services under this Agreement is an employee, agent or contractor of Company or any Affiliate. The arrangements made pursuant to this Agreement will not be deemed to constitute "joint sales," "program services," "time brokerage," "local marketing," or similar arrangements or a partnership, joint venture, association, syndicate, unincorporated business, or other separate entity, or, except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, agency relationship between Manager and Company or any Affiliate, and no such arrangement will be deemed to give Manager any right to control the policies, operations, management or any other matter relating to the Affiliates in a manner that would violate any Communications Law.

15. Damages; Specific Performance. In the event of a material breach by any Party of its obligations hereunder, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to seek monetary damages against the breaching Party. The Parties recognize, however, that, given the unique nature of the Stations, the services and this Agreement, monetary damages alone will not be adequate to compensate the non-breaching Party for any injury resulting from a breach of this Agreement. Except to the extent such action would not be permitted by the rules and regulations of the FCC, each Party shall therefore be entitled, in addition to a right to seek and collect monetary damages, to obtain specific performance of the terms of this Agreement without the posting of any bond or other security and without the need to prove actual damages. If any action is brought by a Party to enforce this Agreement, the other Party shall waive the defense

All counterparts shall collectively constitute a single agreement. It shall not be necessary in making proof of this Agreement to produce or account for more than a number of counterparts containing the respective signatures of all of the parties.
