

710 Turner McCall Blvd
Rome, GA 30165
706-234-1237

Joy Christian Communications, Inc.
Description of Corporation and a brief History

Joy Christian Communications, Inc., known locally as Joy Christian Radio, was founded in 2000. It was originally known as "Macon Community Radio, Inc." a Georgia not-for-profit corporation. Ed Smith, who was instrumental in the organization of this corporation, was elected as president in June, 2002. The corporation changed its name to Joy Christian Communications, Inc. in March, 2003 in order to reflect the true mission and heritage. The main offices of Joy Christian Communications, Inc. were relocated to Rome, GA in June, 2008, as the organization completed its "full circle" and returned home.

Joy Christian Communications, Inc. is a 501 (c) (3), tax-exempt organization recognized by the IRS. The purpose of existence of Joy Christian Communications, Inc., as stated in our mission statement and Constitution, is Christian in nature. Our mission is to spread the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ through whatever media is open and available to us.

This Corporate Description and Brief History Humbly Submitted by:
Ed Smith,
Founder and President
Joy Christian Communications, Inc.