

The educational goal of Love Commandment Ministries is to educate and inform its local residents and community members regarding the need for effective community involvement. LCM's lpfm radio station will enhance LCM's goals by providing programming that will educate listeners regarding community matters, community news and awareness, community health consciousness, preparedness and safety, and local and national arts, music and cultural activities that foster freedom of expression and freedom of exchange. LCM will inform and educate its listeners with regards to various issues from City government to the arts, from money matters to local cultural expressions and diversities, from fitness news and neighborhood specific challenges to locally celebrated triumphs. LCM will be positioned at the heart of the community educating and communicating to listeners the essence of effective and collective community involvement that inspires. LCM will also educate local residents and students by providing hands on technical training to its community members in order to produce a variety of broadcast content consistent with the overall educational mission and goal of the station.

Some of LCM's radio programming will include:
