

Exhibit Showing Terrain Analysis

This is to show that KTRO-LP will not interfere with KOCETV, as there is a mountain between the two stations that provides a solid barrier preventing any predicted interference. This mountain is on average about 4400 ft. high; therefore neither stations grade B contours will overlap.