As is indicated in the above chart, the voting Common Stock (referred to as Class A Common Stock) of Qantum Communications is held and voted by Frank D. Osborn (either in his own name or in conjunction with the other trustee of the trust for his children) and Michael F. Mangan, both of whom are veteran radio broadcasters. Mr. Osborn, the single majority voting owner, holds 81.11% of the outstanding voting Common Stock (with the trust for his children holding an additional 14.45%), while Mr. Mangan holds 4.44% of the outstanding voting Common Stock.

The Qantum voting Preferred Stock (referred to as Series A-1 Preferred Stock) is also held and voted by Mr. Osborn, the trustees and Mr. Mangan. Mr. Osborn holds and votes 81.11% of the outstanding voting Preferred Stock (with the trustees voting an additional 14.45%) and Mr. Mangan holds and votes 4.44% of the outstanding voting Preferred Stock.

Qantum's Board of Directors consists of five members. Three of the directors are nominated by Mr. Osborn and may be removed by Mr. Osborn. The two other directors are elected (and may be removed) by the holders of the voting Preferred Stock, i.e., Mr. Osborn, Mr. Mangan and the trust for Mr. Osborn's children.

¹ Among the non-voting investors in Qantum Communications is a group of six entities related to Nautic Partners LLC (the "Nautic Entities"). The six entities are: Chisholm Partners IV, LP; Kennedy Plaza Partners II, LLC; Fleet Growth Resources III, Inc.; Fleet Equity Partners VII, LP; Nautic Partners V, LP; and Kennedy Plaza Partners III, LLC. Board member Bradley Wightman is an officer of entities with management responsibility for Nautic Entities. Mr. Wightman does not have attributable interests in other broadcast stations. The Nautic Entities have no other broadcast interests. Certain other entities related to the Nautic Entities hold interests in the stations that are the subject of this and the other companion applications filed concurrently herewith. Those interests will terminate at the closing.

One thousand shares of non-voting Common Stock are held by Quantum Management Group, LLC (“Quantum Management”). Quantum Management was formed as a vehicle to reward senior officers and employees of Quantum and its subsidiaries by allocating non-voting Quantum Common Stock to Quantum Management, an entity whose members consist of such senior officers and employees.

BancAmerica Capital Investors SBIC I L.P. (the “Fund”) is a nonattributable institutional investor in the proposed assignee’s ultimate parent, Quantum Communications. It holds the right to convert its non-voting shares into voting shares, but only after receiving any requisite approvals from the Commission and such conversion right is not based on the actions of the assignee relating to programming, personnel or financing. The Fund has no control over the programming, personnel or financing of the assignee. It has the right to consent to Quantum Communication’s annual budget, but in the event that no such budget is approved prior to December 31 of the prior year, the prior year’s budget is to remain in effect, thus assuring access to operating funds by the assignee. In Telemundo Communications Group, Inc., and TN Acquisition Corp., 17 FCC Rcd 6958 (2002), the Commission found such a provision to be a permissible means for a non-voting shareholder to protect its investment while avoiding attribution. Id. at 6971. In addition, in the present case, Quantum Communications is specifically permitted to make capital expenditures in excess of the budgeted amount, up to a maximum of $100,000 in any fiscal year, as necessary to ensure that the assignee and the stations are operating in accordance with the Communications Act and the Commission’s rules and regulations. The Fund also has the right to have a representative attend meetings of Quantum’s Board of Directors solely as an observer; in no event does such an observer have any right to vote with respect to any matters before the board.

The Fund does not have a right to designate a member of Quantum’s board of directors.

No officer or employee of the Fund or its general partner serves on the Quantum board. One of Quantum’s directors, Mr. Elson, is an employee of Bank of America, N.A., a noncontrolling affiliate-limited partner of the Fund. While not an employee of the Fund, Quantum and Mr. Elson have implemented recusal procedures which insulate him from participating in decisions (or discussions leading up to decisions) by Quantum’s board of directors relating to (i) programming, sale of advertising or personnel of any station in which Quantum has an attributable interest or to other matters involving the day-to-day operations at any such station and (ii) transactions involving Quantum that relate to any broadcast station, daily newspaper or cable television system in which the Fund has an attributable interest.
