MISSION STATEMENT OF RADIO VISION CRISTIANA MANAGEMENT

Radio Vision Cristiana Management was incorporated by the State of New York as an educational nonstock non-profit corporation on June 16, 1989.

Radio Vision operates full-power radio stations throughout the United States under licenses granted by the Federal Communications Commission. Some or all of those stations may carry commercial advertisements in order to fund the stations' non-profit educational purposes.

Radio Vision uses its stations exclusively for the advancement of a unique 100% Spanish language educational program designed to educate and meet community

The ongoing needs of Radio Vision's audiences are regularly reviewed so that educational programs may be presented to meet future needs of those audiences. Radio Vision's educational programs in support of its teaching goals include the subjects of Bible study, contemporary and historical drama, psychology, literature appreciation, health, historical and contemporary sacred music, scientific and philosophical information, secular news and public affairs, religious news and viewpoints, programs designed for young children, teenagers, and the elderly, devotionals, church services, sermons, and public service announcements.
