

Exhibit Showing Terrain Analysis

This is to show that K06MB will not interfere with KMOHTV, as there is a mountain between the two stations that provides a solid barrier preventing any predicted interference. This mountain is on average about 5400 ft. high; therefore neither stations grade B contours will overlap.