

November 4, 2011

To whom it may concern

I have reviewed our file Shop Order 23723 for KGRI dated March 30, 2005 and determined that the change in the KLVU antenna system will not have a measurable effect on the KGRI directional pattern. This is due to the fact that the yagi array has a high front to back ratio.

If you have any questions or need more information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Robert A. Surette

Director of Engineering