

EXHIBIT 17

Compliance with Multiple Ownership Requirements

By this application, the parties seek the Commission's consent to the assignment of the licenses of television broadcast stations KMYT-TV, Tulsa, Oklahoma (Facility ID No. 54420), and KOKI-TV, Tulsa, Oklahoma (Facility ID No. 11910), from Newport Television License LLC ("Newport") to KTVU, Inc. ("Cox").¹

Local Television Ownership Rule: Nielsen Media Research assigns both KMYT-TV and KOKI-TV to the Tulsa, Oklahoma DMA. Section 73.3555(b) of the Commission's rules permits common ownership of two TV stations within the same DMA (1) if, following the transaction, at least eight independently-owned and operating full-power commercial and noncommercial TV stations will remain in the DMA and (2) if at least one of the two commonly owned TV stations is not among the top-four ranked TV stations in the DMA based on the most recent all-day (9 a.m.-midnight) audience share percentages at the time the application is filed, as measured by a professional rating service such as Nielsen Media Research.

Newport currently owns and operates both KMYT-TV and KOKI-TV in the Tulsa, Oklahoma DMA. As shown below, assignment intact of Newport's duopoly in this market to Cox would comply with both prongs of the Commission's TV duopoly standard.

- Independent Television Voices: Attachment 1 hereto lists the full-power, operational independently-owned commercial and noncommercial television stations that will remain in the Tulsa, Oklahoma DMA after Cox's acquisition of KMYT-TV and KOKI-TV. As Attachment 1 shows, ten (10) full-service, independent television voices would remain in the Tulsa, Oklahoma DMA following the consummation of the proposed transaction.
- No More than One Top-4 Station in the Proposed Combination: Based on the May 2012 Nielsen NSI audience survey, Newport's Fox-affiliated KOKI-TV is the fourth (4th) ranked television station in the Tulsa, Oklahoma DMA and Newport's MyTV-affiliated KMYT-TV is the sixth (6th) ranked television station in the Tulsa, Oklahoma DMA based on Nielsen's all-day (9 a.m.-midnight) audience share rankings, the most recently available Nielsen rankings at the time of the filing of the instant application.²

Cox's acquisition of Newport's Tulsa duopoly accordingly complies with Section 73.3555(b).

¹ KTVU, Inc. has been substituted for KTVU, LLC, which was initially proposed as the assignee. KTVU, Inc. owns and controls KTVU, LLC, and is the immediate parent entity of KTVU, LLC.

² In determining the number of independent television voices, the Commission's rules provide for the counting only of those stations whose Grade B contours overlap the Grade B contour of at least one of the stations in the proposed combination. The predicted noise-limited digital coverage contours of KOKI-TV and KMYT-TV have substantial overlap with the predicted noise-limited contours of each of the other full-service television broadcast stations in the Tulsa, Oklahoma DMA and listed on Attachment 1, as shown by the contour study prepared by Du Treil, Lundin & Rackley, Inc., that is attached as Attachment 3.

Radio-Television Cross-Ownership Rule: Pursuant to previously granted consents and authorizations by the Commission, Cox subsidiaries hold five radio broadcast stations in the Tulsa, Oklahoma Arbitron Metro Market: KSJR(FM), KRAV(FM), KRMG-FM, and KWEN(FM), all licensed to Tulsa, Oklahoma, and KRMG(FM), licensed to Sandy Springs, Oklahoma. Section 73.3555(c)(2) of the Commission's rules permits a single entity to own, operate, or control up to two (2) commercial TV stations and up to six (6) commercial radio stations in the same market if at least twenty (20) independently owned media voices would remain in the market after the acquisition.

As shown in Attachment 1, the Tulsa, Oklahoma DMA includes ten (10) independent television voices. Attachment 2 includes the BIA/Kelsey report for the Tulsa, Oklahoma Arbitron Metro Market, the radio metro market that includes the community of license of the television stations to be acquired. Attachment 2 shows sixteen (16) independent radio voices in the Tulsa market, excluding Cox. Thus, without even considering cable television and newspaper independent media voices, the Tulsa market has well over twenty (20) independent television and radio media voices. Cox therefore may hold its five (5) radio stations in the Tulsa market together with television stations KOKI-TV and KMYT-TV in compliance with Section 73.3555 of the Commission's rules.
