

EXHIBIT 18

OTHER AUTHORIZATIONS

The only party to the instant application (“Application”) that currently holds an attributable interest in a broadcast station is Ronald L. Olson, who is a director of Berkshire Hathaway Inc. (“Berkshire Hathaway”). Following the consummation of the proposed transfer of control, Berkshire Hathaway indirectly will wholly own and control the anticipated<sup>1</sup> licensee, Miami Station Split Co., of full-power commercial digital television station license call sign WPLG(DT), Miami, Florida (Facility ID No. 53113) (“WPLG”).

Mr. Olson also is a director of Graham Holdings Company (“GHC”), which currently indirectly wholly owns and controls WPLG. Following the consummation of the proposed transfer of control, in addition to his attributable interest in WPLG resulting from his positional interest on the Berkshire Hathaway board of directors, Mr. Olson also will hold an attributable interest in the following broadcast stations as a result of his positional interest on the GHC board of directors:

Call Sign	Licensee	Community of License	Facility Identification No.
WJXT(DT)	Post-Newsweek Stations, Florida, Inc.	Jacksonville, FL	53116
KSAT-TV	Post-Newsweek Stations, San Antonio, Inc.	San Antonio, TX	53118
WKMG-TV	Post-Newsweek Stations, Orlando, Inc.	Orlando, FL	71293
KPRC-TV	Post-Newsweek Stations, Houston, Inc.	Houston, TX	53117
WDIV-TV	Post-Newsweek Stations, Michigan, Inc.	Detroit, MI	53114

Following the consummation of the proposed transfer of control, no other party to the Application will hold an attributable interest in any broadcast station other than WPLG.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Berkshire Hathaway director Stephen B. Burke is the Chief Executive Officer and President of NBCUniversal, Inc. (“NBCU”), and he holds attributable interests in a variety of broadcast stations as a result of his positional interest with NBCU. However, as set forth in Exhibit 20 to this Application, Mr. Burke does not hold an attributable interest in Berkshire Hathaway for purposes of this Application and therefore is not a party to the Application.
