

Attributes of Proposed Community of License

The Town of Huntertown, IN is an incorporated town, located in Allen County, and identified in the Rand McNally Atlas. It is governed by a Town Council, which consists of a Council President and 4 other Council members, each elected to a term of 4 years by the community-at-large. See Attachment A. According to the 2000 Census, the population of Huntertown was 1,771. See Attachment B. Huntertown, IN has its own weekly newspaper, the Northwest News, its own fire department, the Huntertown Fire Department, and its own post office, the Huntertown Post-Office. See Attachment C. In addition, it has two elementary schools, Our Hope Lutheran School and Huntertown Elementary School. It also has one middle/high school, Heritage Mission. See Attachment D. It has a total of five churches, Huntertown United Methodist Church, Our Hope Lutheran, Resurrection Lutheran Church, First Baptist Church and First Church of Nazarene. See Exhibit E. Finally, there are banks, financial institutions, insurance companies, restaurants and numerous retail establishments in the community. Such attributes are sufficient to establish that Huntertown constitutes a community for allotment purposes. See, e.g. Cal-Nev-Ari, Nevada, 14 FCC Rcd 17153 (Media Bureau 1999).
