

Television Channel 6 Protection

The proposed antenna location is within the distance to an affected TV Channel 6 station as defined in 47 C.F.R. Section 73.525. This application complies with the requirements of this section because the proposed interference contour does not cross the affected channel six 47 dBu contour. The predicted interference will affect zero population.

