

Minor Construction Permit Modification Application

This construction permit modification specifies a change in the antenna polarization from H&V to V-only in order to match the Scala CLFM antenna specified in the previous application. There will be no change to the ERP or other technical parameters including the fill-in status of K243CC, the 60 dBu contour coverage, or the relationship to other broadcast facilities and international compliance with regard to Mexico.