

- On-air operation, including scheduling, presentation of both recorded and live programming
- Creation and production related to attracting sponsors and/or fund-raising efforts
- Administration of broadcast facility (office operations, business and financial record-keeping, etc.)

Music/Recorded Performance Education

Programming of various styles and artists, with prepared historical/relational commentary, representing the evolution of music in America (1920s to present); styles to include blues, jazz, classical, folk/country, swing, spoken word, theatrical soundtrack, etc.

Community and Adult Education

- Programming related to Lawrence County Community and Adult Education classes, which include GED preparation and an Adult Diploma Program, including promotion of class availability, schedules, registration information, etc.

Dissemination of Local News

- Events or developments of local interest, other than those related to schools, local government, community and churches (i.e., law enforcement, judicial rulings, locally-related business news, locally-related legislation, etc.)

Dissemination of Public Health and Safety Information

- Weather-related announcements (i.e., officially issued tornado warnings)
- Announcements or educational information from local law enforcement agencies
- Announcements or educational information from local health officials
- Announcements or educational information from Lawrence County Emergency Management Agency
- Announcements or educational information regarding consumer affairs affecting local residents